To: Striker Securities ("Introducing Broker")

The undersigned (hereinafter referred to as "Customer") hereby notifies

Striker Securities ("Introducing Broker")

Accordingly, Customer hereby directs Broker to accept orders for Customer's account in accordance with the trading signals and recommendations generated by the System. In consideration of Introducing Broker's acceptance of Customer's account to be traded pursuant to this Letter of Direction, Customer hereby agrees to the following:

1. Customer fully understands that the trading signals and recommendations are produced by the System and not by the Broker, and that the Broker's responsibility is limited to entering orders on the Customer's behalf, pursuant to the signals and recommendations generated by the System. Customer warrants that the use of the system is paid for solely by Customer. In the event that Customer has not paid for the use of the System, Customer hereby authorizes Introducing Broker's Futures Commission Merchant to debit the Customer's account in the amount shown on Introducing Broker's website for the use of the System. Customer fully warrants that the Broker has not solicited Customer's use of the System, or in any way recommended the System. Customer has researched the System sufficiently to make an informed investment decision in this regard.
2. With respect to the markets and the number of contracts in each market to be traded pursuant to the trading signals and recommendations generated by the System, the Broker is hereby authorized to place orders in accordance with instruction received from Customer to Broker either by e-mail, fax, or letter.
3. The Broker does not guarantee that Customer will make a profit from trading the System. The Customer understands that the risk of loss in trading futures can be substantial. The Customer agrees that the Broker will not be held responsible for the System's performance or trading losses incurred in Customer's account as a result of the trading activity pursuant to the System. Customer understands that using the System to generate trading signals exposes Customer to risks associated with the use of computers and data feeds systems relied upon by the Broker. Customer hereby agrees to accept such risks, which may include, but are not limited to, failure of hardware, software or associated communication systems and/or inaccurate external data feeds provided by third party vendors.

Customer further agrees to hold the Broker harmless from any losses in Customer's account associate with these risks.

4. By signing below, Customer grants a limited power of attorney to Introducing Broker, its agents, brokers, affiliates, or employees for the sole purpose of entering orders in accordance with the signals generated by the System. Broker shall not be responsible for mechanical or communication line failure, or System errors, or any other cause beyond its control. Customer acknowledges that the Broker can accept and transmit orders only if actually received or generated and the only on a "not held" basis (i.e., Broker shall not be held responsible for the execution of the orders.)

5. The Broker may act upon the authority given by this Letter of Direction until Customer revokes this authority by written notice delivered to and received by Introducing Broker. Customer understands that it is solely Customer's responsibility to notify Introducing Broker if Customer wishes to terminate the automatic trading for Customer's account pursuant to this Letter of Direction. Customer shall be responsible for any open position(s) in Customer's account at the time that Customer revokes the authority and, in the absence of instructions to the contrary, Customer hereby authorizes Broker to offset any open positions in Customer's account at Broker's sole discretion.
